Eph 4:11-15

11 And He Himself gave some to be apostles, some prophets, some evangelists, and some pastors and teachers, 12 for the equipping of the saints for the work of ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ, 13 till we all come to the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to a perfect man, to the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ; 14 that we should no longer be children, tossed to and fro and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the trickery of men, in the cunning craftiness of deceitful plotting, 15 but, speaking the truth in love, may grow up in all things into Him who is the head—Christ—

WHEN YOU PRAY, PLEASE REMEMBER:

Every Member Working Together

Trenton Hall

Every member of the church plays a vital role in its success. From elders to young people, all contribute meaningfully, using their unique talents and abilities to build God's kingdom.

Take a moment to consider what role we play in the growth of the church.

It takes every elder to meditate on the scriptures and pray as they guide, protect, and oversee the local flock (Acts 6:4; Acts 20:28; Hebrews 13:7; Hebrews 13:17).

It takes deacons to serve under the direction of the elders as he has been appointed in the church; they are the right hand of the eldership in both the physical and spiritual work of the church (Acts 6:2-3, I Timothy 3:8-13).

It takes every preacher to stand for the truth and preach without favor or compromise; They will promote the way of the cross, planting the seed of God's word, and trusting that God will give the increase in the true and honest heart (Acts 20:20, Luke 8:11; 1 Corinthians 3:6-8).

It takes Bible teachers who remember that they have a tremendous responsibility in shaping and molding the lives of their students. They will not only take heed to themselves, but be an example to others (James 3:1, I Timothy 4:12, 1 Timothy 4:16).

It takes members to use their talents, looking for opportunities and serving one another, being hospitable, encouraging, and spending time with one another (Ephesians 4:11-15).

It takes parents to provide spiritual nourishment for their children, and to emphasize spiritual maturity as they grow (Ephesians 6:4).

It takes every young person to listen to the instructions of their parents and fortify themselves against the peer pressures of the world by growing in the grace and knowledge of our Lord, and being confident in their faith in Christ (2 Peter 3:18; 1 Peter 3:16).

It takes every member to be an example of godliness and love so others may be taught and converted to the truth of God's Son (1 Timothy 4:7-8; John 13:35). The borders of the kingdom will increase because of their concern for lost souls (Acts 8:4).

It takes all of us, united in purpose and faith. Let's work together, using our different gifts and talents, to build a vibrant and impactful church community that reflects God's love and grace.
