

A.M. — A Serpent and A Savior
(Numbers 21.4-9; John 3.14-18)

I. The up-lifted serpent (Numbers 21.4-9)

- A. Israel's _____ and _____.
(v 5-6)
- B. The _____ of God's plan. (v 8)
- C. The _____ bore a striking resemblance to the _____. (v 8)
- D. Healing was universally _____. (v 8)
- E. One was required to respond in _____. (v 8)
- F. Those who submitted were _____. (v 9)
- G. Those who didn't were condemned to _____.

II. The up-lifted Savior (John 3.14-18)

- A. Our _____ and _____.
(Isaiah 53.6; 59.1-2; Romans 3.23; 6.23)
- B. The _____ of God's plan.
(1 Corinthians 1.23-25)
- C. The _____ bears a striking resemblance to the _____.
- D. Healing is universally _____.
(John 3.15-16; 1 John 2.1-2)
- E. One is required to respond in _____.
(John 3.15-16,18; Acts 22.16; 1 Peter 3.21)
- F. Those who submit are _____.
(John 3.15-16,18; cf. Hebrews 5.8-9)
- G. Those who don't are condemned to _____.
(John 3.18; Acts 4.12)

III. Conclusion:

- A. By His _____, God made provisions by which the _____ could be saved from the deadly bite of the _____ if they would respond in _____.
- B. By His _____, God made provisions by which _____ can be saved from the deadly sting of _____ if we will respond in _____.