WHO
AM I?

Who am I?

- A question asked as one humbly acknowledges his place, especially before God.
- When we consider who God is and who we are, it ought to humble us.
- A question we OUGHT to be asking.
- Let us notice some answers... that apply to all

WHO
AM I?

Who am I?

- I am created by God
- Genesis 1:1, 2:7 - God created all things, including man. Formed out of the dust of the ground
- Zechariah 12:1, He forms the spirit of man within
- Colossians 1:15-16, Jesus, all things created through Him

WHO
AM I?

Who am I?

- I am created by God
- Many today struggle with the idea that God created us and all things. This despite the failures of naturalism to give ANY consistent answer to the origin of life, or matter. NOTHING that explains the essence of humanity
- Romans 1:28
- Psalms 19:1-4, 8:3-4

WHO
AM I?

Who am I?

- I am made in God's image
- Genesis 1:26-27
- This is what sets man apart from the rest of creation, including all other living things
- Man can reason, formulate exact thoughts, philosophize, calculate and understand the laws of nature and use them, appreciate beauty, worship God, etc.

WHO
AM I?

Who am I?

- I am made in God's image
- Job 32:8, But there is a spirit in man, and the breath of the Almighty gives him understanding

Do I love Him as I should?

WHO
AM I?

Who am I?

- I am subject to His laws
- If all the above is true, then I need to obey God! He has the right to make “the rules”
- Far too many today balk at following God’s laws - rebellion, selfishness, etc.
- LOOK AT WHERE WE ARE AT as a society!

WHO
AM I?

Who am I?

- I am subject to His laws
- If we want a better world, we need to follow the pattern given to us by its designer - loving and respecting one another, living with self-control, humble and unselfish, etc.
- Who can honestly deny that such would make this world better?
- BUT to follow is to acknowledge Him
