THE CONYERS BEACON

"There is a way which seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death."

Proverbs 14:12

Pondering the Proverbs 20

Decisions, decisions, oh, the wonderful power of choice that God has blessed us with can free us or imprison us. It is a matter of how we use this power.

When Joshua began to lead the children of Israel, all were making good decisions. Joshua chapter six, tells us about the instructions and the great victory at Jericho. The people had demonstrated their faith in Almighty God by following His instructions to the detail. Verse twenty-seven of Joshua six tells us that the Lord was with Joshua and this great victory was noised abroad. The people must have been so excited. They decided to follow God's way and all came to fruition just as God had promised. The story must have gone through out the land beginning with the line, "You had t see it to believe it..." It was a time of joy. Now, what to do with the remains of the city?

And ye, in any wise keep yourselves from the accursed thing, lest ye make yourselves accursed, when ye take of the accursed thing, and make the camp of Israel a curse, and trouble it. But all the silver, and gold, and vessels of brass and iron, are consecrated unto the LORD: they shall come into the treasury of the LORD. (Joshua 6:18-19)

One would think that with all the success, the Lord's direction would be held onto in every detail and yet there was a problem in the camp.

But the children of Israel committed a trespass in the accursed thing: for Achan, the son of Carmi, the son of Zabdi, the son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, took of the accursed thing: and the anger of the LORD was kindled against the children of Israel. (Joshua 7:1)

Since this thing was done in secret, Joshua was unaware. It seems that Achan thought no one would know. Then Joshua moved forward to the next conquest. It appears that in the excitement of the success, Joshua did not seek God's counsel before he moved on the city of Ai. The tragic loss of life at Ai indicated that God was not with them. Achan had to be sought out from the children of Israel. He and his family were stoned to death and then with the counsel of God, success returned. The wisdom of the Proverbs boils this principal down. "There is a way which seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death" (Proverbs 14:12).

Have you had success in your life? Count your blessings and be amazed at what you find. Hold on to the counsel of God's Word today and He will walk with you to success and eternal life.
