THE CONYERS BEACON

“The Lord is my light and my salvation;
Whom shall I fear? The Lord is the strength of my life; Of whom shall I be afraid?”

Psalm 27:1

God is a Stronghold in the Day of Trouble

We are faced with trials and days of trouble in this life. It would seem that sometimes storms will toss us helplessly upon the sea of life. We have a life-preserver when we are facing vast waves of trouble that are bent on destroying us. "The Lord is good, a stronghold in the day of trouble; he knows those who take refuge in him. But with an overflowing flood he will make a complete end of the adversaries, and will pursue his enemies into darkness" (Nahum 1:7-8). We can go to the Almighty God. "I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending, saith the Lord, which is, and which was, and which is to come, the Almighty" (Revelation 1:8). God has all power and authority. We can turn to Him when life strikes out at us with unyielding blows.

Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light. (Matthew 11:28-30)

Our charge is to remember to turn to Him in our time of trouble. "What shall we then say to these things? If God be for us, who can be against us? He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things?" (Romans 8:31-32). Too often we get angry with God when trials come our way and forget that by the difficulties in life we become strong.

Matthew chapter eight reminds us of the power of God as we find the instance where Jesus was aboard a ship and a mighty storm arose. Christ lay sleeping at the rear of the water craft safe and secure while the tempest frightened all other aboard. "And his disciples came to him, and awoke him, saying, Lord, save us: we perish. And he saith unto them, Why are ye fearful, O ye of little faith? Then he arose, and rebuked the winds and the sea; and there was a great calm. But the men marveled, saying, What manner of man is this, that even the winds and the sea obey him!" (Matthew 8:25-27). Have you ever felt this kind of fear? When we are disappointed we sometimes even get angry with God. John chapter 11 records this feeling as reflected by Martha. Verse 21 tells us that Martha accused Jesus that had He been there earlier her brother would not have died. Verse 35 shows us God's compassion for our emotional pain for there, "Jesus wept." Never forget that Jesus loves you and hears the prayer of the righteous. (James 5:16)

Let us go to God in prayer and complete faith asking Him to bring calm into our lives. Let us remember that despite the troubles that we may face, we can hold to the mighty hand of God and find solace there. Too many times we feel as though God's response is not fast enough and yet the challenges we face give us an opportunity to glorify Him. Let us not be impatient like Martha but ask a question. "What is God trying to teach me today?"

"The LORD is good, a strong hold in the day of trouble; and he knoweth them that trust in him. But with an overrunning flood he will make an utter end of the place thereof, and darkness shall pursue his enemies" (Nahum 1:7-8).
