BEAMS

Buffet Style
by: Jeff Johnson

There was once a comedian who made quite a joke out of the cook's response to a customer at the buffet line. The cook said, "Sign say, All You Can Eat, not all cook can cook." We live in a world that has a vast number of choices. The popular buffets are filled with such a variety of food one could not possibly have room to sample everything. Then there are our favorites. We feast on those things we love and leave behind what we perceive to be unappealing.

We even see this happening in our public schools. Some schools have specialties in science or business. This choice system is placed before children of elementary age. Early on we are taught the world is a vast array of choice and we need to keep our options open. It seems we live in a world that thinks in a "Choice Gone Wild" fashion. Anything goes as long as I choose it. The cry of innocent blood rises before the throne of God everyday as those who chose to be sexually irresponsible are now choosing to abort the lives of the vulnerable.

We wag our heads at this world but yet we find this idea of choice has introduced "Buffet Style" religion. Somewhere we picked up the idea that God serves us instead of the other way around. "Wherefore God also gave them up to uncleanness through the lusts of their own hearts, to dishonour their own bodies between themselves: Who changed the truth of God into a lie, and worshipped and served the creature more than the Creator, who is blessed for ever. Amen (Romans 1:24-25). Phrases that have become popular include: "If God loves me, then He wants me to be happy. I can't change who I am. My God is bigger than that rule book you call the Bible. If you object to my lifestyle you are rigid and unaccepting. If you can't accept me the way I am, you have a heart full of hate." The list goes on and on.

Has God been clear on what He expects from us? Are any and all our choices acceptable to Him? It would seem that the vast majority of people believe that religion is democratic in nature. Meaning that what the majority wants is the way we go. When there is enough dissention over an issue then another denomination or group is created. Is this pleasing to God? Did He leave us with guidance about such things?

"Ye shall not add unto the word which I command you, neither shall ye diminish ought from it, that ye may keep the commandments of the LORD your God which I command you" (Deuteronomy 4:2). "What thing soever I command you, observe to do it: thou shalt not add thereto, nor diminish from it" (Deuteronomy 12:32). "Thy word is true from the beginning: and every one of thy righteous judgments endureth for ever" (Psalms 119:160). "Add thou not unto his words, lest he reprove thee, and thou be found a liar" (Proverbs 30:6).

Now I beseech you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you; but that ye be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment. For it hath been declared unto me of you, my brethren, by them which are of the house of Chloe, that there are contentions among you. Now this I say, that every one of you saith, I am of Paul; and I of Apollos; and I of Cephas; and I of Christ. Is Christ divided? was Paul crucified for you? or were ye baptized in the name of Paul? (1 Corinthians 1:10-13)

For I testify unto every man that heareth the words of the prophecy of this book, If any man shall add unto these things, God shall add unto him the plagues that are written in this book: And if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his part out of the book of life, and out of the holy city, and from the things which are written in this book. (Revelation 22:18-19)

It appears that God did give us guidance and expectations. God does love you and me and wants us to be happy. Because of that fact He has given us the right choices in His guidebook the Bible. Following His healthy choice guide we will find joy in this life and the next.
