“Who’s Your Donkey?”

Jeff Johnson

In our last study, we focused on Numbers 22. There we saw Balaam give in to the potential gain from responding to Balak’s insistent invitation. We considered the importance of a decision to “push the envelope” with God and the result of having His anger kindled toward us. We need to choose our paths carefully.

It is truly amazing how much God loves so much that even when we take chances, He gives us the opportunity to get back on track. Balaam took two servants and was on the road to the see the King of Moab riding his donkey. Then the most peculiar behavior is displayed by the donkey.

And the donkey saw the angel of the Lord standing in the road, with a drawn sword in his hand. And the donkey turned aside out of the road and went into the field. And Balaam struck the donkey, to turn her into the road. Then the angel of the Lord stood in a narrow path between the vineyards, with a wall on either side. And when the donkey saw the angel of the Lord, she pushed against the wall and pressed Balaam’s foot against the wall. So he struck her again. Then the angel of the Lord went ahead and stood in a narrow place, where there was no way to turn either to the right or to the left. When the donkey saw the angel of the Lord, she lay down under Balaam. And Balaam’s anger was kindled, and he struck the donkey with his staff. Then the Lord opened the mouth of the donkey, and she said to Balaam, “What have I done to you, that you have struck me these three times?” And Balaam said to the donkey, “Because you have made a fool of me. I wish I had a sword in my hand, for then I would kill you.” And the donkey said to Balaam, “Am I not your donkey, on which you have ridden all your life long to this day? Is it my habit to treat you this way?” And he said, “No.” Then the Lord opened the eyes of Balaam, and he saw the angel of the Lord standing in the way, with his drawn sword in his hand. And he bowed down and fell on his face. And the angel of the Lord said to him, “Why have you struck your donkey these three times? Behold, I have come out to oppose you because your way is perverse before me. The donkey saw me and turned aside before me these three times. If she had not turned aside from me, surely just now I would have killed you and let her live.” (Numbers 22:23-33)

Note the first thing the donkey does to avoid the angel of the Lord is get off the road and go somewhere, anywhere else. Could it be that God would try to lead you off the road to destruction and into a place of safety?

Do you find yourself surrounded with others that seem emotionally lost, physically limited or spiritual foreigners to God? Overwhelming circumstances could be God’s providential care providing you with opportunities to think of and care for others. We have a choice to care for others or feel sorry for ourselves because there is so much to do. Jesus said, “So whatever you wish that others would do to you, do also to them, for this is the Law and the Prophets” (Matthew 7:12).

Next the donkey presses Balaam’s foot against a wall. Have you ever felt the pressure of justifying your actions? You wanted this thing, everyone could understand, and would not be satisfied without it. Jesus said, “But seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be added to you” (Matthew 6:33). Perhaps the pressure would release if we look to God for our pleasure instead of worldly things.

Finally, the donkey just lays down in the road. Balaam is humiliated in front of the others. After being beaten a third time, the donkey speaks to Balaam. Balaam is reminded of the faithful service from the donkey. As his eyes were opened, Balaam sees how close to death he actually came.

For you and I, Jesus laid down His life on the cross at Calvary. He brings us his message of love by way of God’s word. When we study God’s word and realize that sin will cost us eternity, our eyes are opened to the truth. Realizing how close we were to the Devil’s Hell, we will trust and obey the words of the Savior. Jesus is faithful and just to forgive those who obey Him.

God has given us this moment as an opportunity to consider Him and others before ourselves and things. Choose your path carefully. You have the power to choose that which will provide an eternal reward. What will you choose?
