“The Self-Help Guru’s Rules for Life”

Jeff Johnson

It is interesting that every successful life coach uses Biblical principles to help people achieve their goals and find happiness. What would happen to us as a people if we practiced Hebrews 11:6, “But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.”(KJV) Then followed it with Matthew 6:33, “But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you.”(KJV)? Mathematically it would appear that adding Hebrews 11:6 to Matthew 6:33 would result in Philippians 4:7, “And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.”(KJV) Peace is a result of happiness that is found within. Many have wasted the precious time of this life seeking the elusive happiness without. Even with the best life coaches, until one discovers the pursuit of God, there is always something missing. Commonly there are seven rules the gurus provide to fulfill one’s life. Let’s examine these in light of the Bible.

Number One, “Make peace with your past.” The Apostle Paul wrote, “All have sinned and fallen short of the glory of God” (Romans 3:23, NKJV). Still, no one wants to be a part of this group. Wrong doing against others and ultimately against God chimes in the memory and steals the desire to live life to the fullest. Void of the ability to turn back the clock, we must not let the past disturb the future. We are where we are, and the blessing is that we can set sail for a course of success. “For God so loved the world that He gave His Only Begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish but have everlasting life” (John 3:16, KJV) is the wind that fills our sails with hope.

Number Two, “What others think about you is none of your business.” The fact is that no mere man or woman can get you to Heaven. “Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me” (John 14:6, KJV). It would appear that if we add Matthew 6:33 to Hebrews 11:6 finding the result to be Philippians 4:7 then notice the number line for it is John 14:6. One would never be able to make happy the fickle heart of man, but the heart of God is pure and I may live a pleasing life according to His plan.

Number Three, “Time heals almost everything.” The Great God created Time, Space and Matter as we read Genesis 1. Time is an unrenowable resource. “Whereas ye know not what shall be on the morrow. For what is your life? It is even a vapour, that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away. For that ye ought to say, If the Lord will, we shall live, and do this, or that” (James 4:14-15, KJV) Our choice is what we will do with the future. Though we do not know how much future there is, our choices will decide where we spend eternity. Using the future as God directs will heal the broken spirit and save the soul.

Number Four, “No one is in charge of your happiness except you.” As we review our initial equation, Matthew 6:33, plus Hebrews 11:6 resulting in Philippians 4:7, logic demands that to have peace we must be happy. We must also keep in mind that one may have struggles or blessings without, but the peace of God comes from a response within.

Number Five, “Don’t compare your life to others.” The entire seventh chapter of Matthew points to unfit judgement of others. Jealousy over blessings will create anger resulting in the mis-treatment. Arrogance concerning blessings will cause one to think another has no reason to make the bad decisions that resulted in their current position. This also leads to the mis-treatment of others. “Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for this is the law and the prophets” (Matthew 7:12, KJV).

Number Six, “Stop thinking too much.” This statement would be better phrased, “Stop worrying!” “Therefore, I tell you, do not be anxious about your life, what you will eat or what you will drink, nor about your body, what you will put on. Is not life more than food, and the body more than clothing? Look at the birds of the air: they neither sow nor reap nor gather into barns, and yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not of more value than they?” (Matthew 6:25-26, ESV).

Number Seven, “Smile, you don’t own all the problems in the world.” Smiles can be stolen by the reiteration of past wrongs. Paul gives this advice, “Finally, brothers, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is commendable, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things. What you have learned and received and heard and seen in me—practice these things, and the God of peace will be with you” (Philippians 4:8-9, ESV). Think on these things and watch your smile return.

Remember, It’s a good day....
