

The Majority Is Usually Wrong

Matt 7:13-14 Enter ye in at the strait gate: for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat: Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it.

I Pet 3:20 Which sometime were disobedient, when once the longsuffering of God waited in the days of Noah, while the ark was a preparing, wherein few, that is, eight souls were saved by water.

Numbers 13:25-33 Only Joshua and Caleb of the twelve spies had enough faith to report that they could take the promised land with God's help. The majority were wrong.

The majority of believers thought Billy Graham takes the cake - But in an interview with Robert Schuller (5-31-1997), Mr. Graham said "Whether they come from the Muslim world, or the Buddhist world, or the Christian world, or the non-believing world, they are members of the body of Christ because they've been called by God. They may not even know the name of Jesus, but they know in their hearts they need something that they don't have and they turn to the only light they have and I think they're saved and they're going to be with us in heaven." In McCall's magazine (Jan 1978) Graham said "I used to believe that pagans in far-off countries were lost — were going to h-e-l-l — if they did not have the Gospel of Jesus Christ preached to them. I no longer believe that. ... I believe that there are other ways of recognizing the existence of God—through nature, for instance—and plenty of other opportunities, therefore, of saying 'yes' to God." And the Bible says:

- John 14:6 Jesus saith ... I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.
- John 8:24 I said ... ye shall die in your sins: for if ye believe not that I am he, ye shall die in your sins.

The majority agree with Andrew Farley on baptism – (<https://biblequestions.com/answers/does-a-person-need-to-be-water-baptized-to-be-saved/>) "Does a person need to be water baptized to be saved? What exactly is the purpose of baptism? While some teach that water baptism is necessary for salvation, Scripture makes the opposite claim" But the Bible teaches one is not saved from his sins until baptism:

- Mark 16:16a He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved
- John 3:5 Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit he cannot enter into the kingdom of God
- Acts 2:38 Repent, and be baptized ... for the remission of sins
- Acts 22:16 arise, and be baptized, and wash away thy sins
- Gal 3:26-27 For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus. For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ.
- I Pet 3:21 baptism doth also now save us

The majority agree with Andrew Farley on once saved always saved – (<https://biblequestions.com/answers/can-a-christian-forfeit-their-salvation/>) "Can a Christian stop believing and forfeit their salvation? No, a Christian cannot forfeit or give up their salvation."

- Heb 3:1,12 Wherefore, holy brethren, partakers of the heavenly calling, consider the Apostle and High Priest of our profession, Christ Jesus ... Take heed, brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief, in departing from the living God.
- James 5:19-20 Brethren, if any of you do err from the truth, and one convert him; Let him know, that he which converteth the sinner from the error of his way shall save a soul from death, and shall hide a multitude of sins.
- Rev 3:5 He that overcometh, the same shall be clothed in white raiment; and I will not blot out his name out of the book of life, but I will confess his name before my Father, and before his angels.
- Gal 5:4 Christ is become of no effect unto you, whosoever of you are justified by the law; ye are fallen from grace.

The majority agree with Andrew Farley on divorce and remarriage – (<https://biblequestions.com/answers/can-christians-get-remarried/>) “Some Christians believe God forbids remarriage after a divorce. However, this is not an accurate view of the whole of Scripture. ... Some Christian leaders teach that if we are divorced and get remarried, we are perpetual adulterers in God’s eyes. ... the Gospel directly contradicts this idea.”

- Matt 19:9 And I say unto you, Whosoever shall put away his wife, except it be for fornication, and shall marry another, committeth adultery: and whoso marrieth her which is put away doth commit adultery.
- Mark 6:17-18 For Herod himself had sent forth and laid hold upon John, and bound him in prison for Herodias' sake, his brother Philip's wife: for he had married her. For John had said unto Herod, It is not lawful for thee to have thy brother's wife.
- Rom 7:2-3 For the woman which hath an husband is bound by the law to her husband so long as he liveth; but if the husband be dead, she is loosed from the law of her husband. So then if, while her husband liveth, she be married to another man, she shall be called an adulteress: but if her husband be dead, she is free from that law; so that she is no adulteress, though she be married to another man.

I saw a Meme on Facebook recently that said the following – “Always remember, the crowd chose Barabbas – not because they loved him, but because they hated the Truth” (John 7:7, 15:18, I John 3:13). Why did the majority of Jewish leaders hate Jesus/truth so? They were his brethren; why didn’t they love and accept Him? Because Jesus persisted in putting the pressure of scripture on the religious leaders of his “brotherhood” even after they tried to counteract such with personal attacks (John 9:34). The same thing occurs in our modern day “brotherhood.” Nobody hates you as long as you don’t preach on something they are off on (Amos 5:10 They hate him that rebuketh in the gate, and they abhor him that speaketh uprightly).
