

Does It Matter?

what we believe,
 what we teach,
 what we practice,
 how we live,
 how we worship,
 and where we go to church

	Yes	No
Matt 15:9,14 it matters what we believe and teach                      illustrated by Rom 6:4 (This change ... from immersion to pouring, and from pouring to sprinkling, was encouraged by the authority of Calvin, who declared the mode to be a matter of no importance ...) and I Cor 14:34-35 Galatians 1:6-9 NIV has "eternally condemned" James 2:10 it matters how we live Leviticus 10:1-2 it matters how we worship Revelation 22:18-19 ignoring is taking away I Chron 13:7-10 even if we think it is right II John verses 9-11 it matters what church                      (doctrinal conformity to Jesus' teaching is required)
