AM I GOD?

II Kings 5:7

AM I GOD?

- At times there have been individuals who arrogantly believed themselves to be God.
 - Augustus Caesar allowed Greek cities in Asia minor to build temples in his honor.
 - Caligula verbally stated that he was God.
 - Even today, there is a radio personality that identifies himself as Charlamagne tha God.

AM I GOD?

- We understand this to be foolishness of the highest order.
- Even the wicked king of Israel, Jehoram, knew his limitations.
- Although, we may not be so brash as to advocate such nonsense, when we make our own decisions about things that are contrary to God's word, we are saying as much.
