"But exhort one another every day, as long as it is called 'today'" Hebrews 3:13

Is your view of God too small?

The last few months have tested our patience. That's an understatement. But has it also tested our faith? Have we forgotten who's in charge? Have we, as the saying goes, "worried so much about what the world is coming to that we've forgotten who has come into the world"?

I don't have any idea what God has in store for us during this crisis, if anything. But I know that He knows what's going on and He cares about what's going on and that, at some point, He will make everything clear to us — maybe not until the Day of Judgment. That knowledge itself "gives power to the faint, and to him who has no might he increases strength" (Isaiah 40:29). We are strong in God.

So, let's let God do his thing, in his time. Meanwhile, we can "run and not be weary... walk and not faint."

Isaiah 40:21-31

Do you not know? Do you not hear?

Has it not been told you from the beginning?
Have you not understood from the foundations of the earth?

It is he who sits above the circle of the earth,
and its inhabitants are like grasshoppers;
who stretches out the heavens like a curtain,
and spreads them like a tent to dwell in;
who brings princes to nothing,
and makes the rulers of the earth as emptiness.
Scarcely are they planted, scarcely sown,
scarcely has their stem taken root in the earth,
when he blows on them, and they wither,
and the tempest carries them off like stubble.

To whom then will you compare me, that I should be like him? says the Holy One.

Lift up your eyes on high and see:
who created these?

He who brings out their host by number,
calling them all by name;

by the greatness of his might
and because he is strong in power, not one is missing.

Why do you say, O Jacob,
and speak, O Israel,

"My way is hidden from the Lord,
and my right is disregarded by my God"?

Have you not known? Have you not heard?

The Lord is the everlasting God,
the Creator of the ends of the earth.

He does not faint or grow weary;
his understanding is unsearchable.

He gives power to the faint,
and to him who has no might he increases strength.

Even youths shall faint and be weary,
and young men shall fall exhausted;

but they who wait for the Lord shall renew their strength;
they shall mount up with wings like eagles;

they shall run and not be weary;
they shall walk and not faint.
