“But exhort one another every day, as long as it is called ‘today’” Hebrews 3:13

January 1, 2021

Happy New Year!

As we welcome a new year, our hope and prayer is that your faith and your commitment to Christ is as strong as ever. We are also confident that before we get too deep into 2021, we'll be able to be with each other as the family of God — in person, inside and all together. The elders meet at least once-a-week to discuss the situation and we'll be ready to act as soon as we get the go ahead from the health department and the state.

Meanwhile, keep the faith by letting God talk to you everyday and by talking to God every day and by finding someone to help every day (it could well be one of your family members).

A Bible reading plan is provided on the second page of today's Daily View.

If you need anything, please call one of the elders. We all stand ready to help (even if you just need someone to talk to). We've finished a difficult, unpredictable year, but we know and are thankful that God has blessed us while we pray that those who have been most severely affected by the virus or any of the many other dangers we face in the world.

Psalm 4

Answer me when I call, O God of my righteousness!
You have given me relief when I was in distress.
Be gracious to me and hear my prayer!
O men, how long shall my honor be turned into shame?
How long will you love vain words and seek after lies? Selah
But know that the Lord has set apart the godly for himself;
the Lord hears when I call to him.
Be angry, and do not sin;
ponder in your own hearts on your beds, and be silent. Selah Offer right sacrifices,
and put your trust in the Lord.
There are many who say, “Who will show us some good?
Lift up the light of your face upon us, O Lord!”
You have put more joy in my heart
than they have when their grain and wine abound.
In peace I will both lie down and sleep;
for you alone, O Lord, make me dwell in safety.
