PRAYER LIST UPDATES

WYATT FROGG, one of the Frogg's one year old grandsons, had the croup early last week and spent some time in the hospital. Sam and Darlene left for Pennsylvania on Thursday so they could help their son and his family.

TOM SMITH had knee replacement Tuesday, March 21, and will spend several days in rehab at NHC of Farragut.

CHRISTA KING is struggling with asthma.

JERRY PROCTOR, Melanie father, does not have a good prognosis; his doctor has stated, "It is now all in God's hand."

JOHN CHANNELL, Melody's ex-husband and good friend, had a massive stroke on Thursday, March 16. He also has COPD and this is really complicating his recovery. He is totally paralyzed on the right side, non-verbal, and doesn't really seem to know what's happening at times.

"Your kindness and concern have meant so very much and will always be remembered. Thank you doesn't begin to express how much we appreciate all the calls, cards, food, and support we received, not only at mother's death, but also during this last year when she was not able to get out. It is a blessing to be a part of this church. Love, Paula, Della, and Kelly"
