

“There’s a Psalm for That”

Introduction:

A. Apple uses that catchy phrase, “There’s an app for that” to promote their products.

B. Whatever your circumstance in life, there’s a Psalm for that.

- Contemplating origins? Think Psalm 33.
- Rising from bed? Think Psalm 5.
- Going to bed? Think Psalm 4.
- Awake at night? Think Psalm 63.
- Ready to eat? Think Psalm 145.
- Thirsty? Think Psalm 42.
- Going to work? Think Psalm 104.
- Celebrating the Lord’s Day? Think Psalm 122.
- Pondering the meaning of life? Think Psalm 16.
- Your beginning? Think Psalm 139.
- Your birth? Think Psalm 71.
- Enjoying childhood? Think Psalm 34.
- Need motivation to study well? Think Psalm 111.
- Gazing at the stars? Think Psalm 19.
- Maturing as a youth? Think Psalm 119.
- Bringing children into the world? Think Psalm 128.
- Looking for a role-model as a parent? Think Psalm 103.
- Playing with your grandchildren? Think Psalm 145.
- Are the seasons changing? Think Psalm 147.
- Are you traveling? Think Psalm 121.
- Remembering history? Think Psalm 78.
- Talking with your financial planner? Think Psalm 49.
- Tempted by the world? Think Psalm 1.
- Disappointed by life? Think Psalm 77.
- Weeping over your sins? Think Psalm 51.
- Overcome by fear? Think Psalm 91.
- Angered by the wickedness of men? Think Psalm 94.
- Disappointed by the governments of men? Think Psalm 2.
- Prone to worry? Think Psalm 130.
- Growing old? Think Psalm 92.
- Mourning the death of a loved one? Think Psalm 116.
- Anticipating eternity? Think Psalm 73.

Remember this week: whatever your circumstance in life, there’s a Psalm for that.