

Sailing Towards Rome

Acts 27:1-13

And the night following the Lord stood by him, and said, Be of good cheer, Paul: for as thou hast testified of me in Jerusalem, so must thou bear witness also at Rome. Act 23:11

1. Who was with Paul on his journey to Rome? Do we read of this man elsewhere in Acts? In any other scripture?

2. How was Paul treated by Julius? What did Julius allow Paul to do? Consider Julius may have been one of the prominent men to witness Paul's defense before Agrippa.

3. Could this have been a time that Paul could have tried to escape? Why do you think he did not?

4. What were the sailing conditions of the trip thus far?

5. What time of the year is it when it mentions “the fast was already now passed”? What is said of sailing after this time?

6. Where are they at this point (vs. 8) and why do they not stay there?

7. Where were they trying to get to? Was this a long trip?

8. What does Paul perceive at this point in the trip? Who does he share this with? Does this make a difference? What is a time I remember ignoring sound advice?

9. How much experience did Paul have on the seas?

10. Was Paul familiar with Crete?
