

MONTICELLO

CHURCH OF CHRIST

As we have therefore opportunity, let us do good unto all men—Galatians 6:10

Happy Sunday! Times are changing and so are the temperatures! I often enjoy cloudy and rainy days. I'm reminded though after we have a handful of rainy days to cherish and value the sunny ones, too. We need a healthy dose of both. So regardless of the format of our day, may we cherish and value each one in our walk with the Lord, because everyday is a gift from the Lord. It's a clean piece of paper ready to be filled out. It's a new canvas waiting to be painted. It's a new opportunity to start fresh again.

The holiday season will be here before we know it. Halloween has passed us by, and Thanksgiving is just over the horizon. I know a number of people who put the Christmas tree up November 1...What are y'all thinking?! I regularly have this playful argument with my relatives, and I'm often outnumbered. Can you believe that? I'm sure this opinion of mine will change if I ever get married down the road, but we'll just have to wait and see. Until then, in my opinion, the Christmas tree shouldn't go up until after Thanksgiving has been appropriately celebrated. Feel free to lovingly disagree...

We have so much to be thankful for in our everyday lives. I want to take this time and extend a huge "thank you" to everyone who helped give me a warm welcome last Sunday evening! And I want to say "thank you" to everyone who gave a financial contribution to help me get settled in. Your welcome was warm, and I'm grateful to start a new work with you all! I hope and pray that I am a blessing, and that we can work together constructively as we seek to lead hearts and souls, of all ages and walks and backgrounds, closer to the Lord.

We also have so much to be thankful for in our spiritual lives, too! I find that this is one of the reasons we gather together regularly: to give us that reminder of what we have to be thankful for Christ Jesus. We're blessed beyond measure and comprehension. Let's dwell on that this morning as we sing praises to our God, and listen to His Word proclaimed! Blessings!
