

MONTICELLO

CHURCH OF CHRIST

As we have therefore opportunity, let us do good unto all men—Galatians 6:10

Happy Sunday! I hope you set your clocks back...because if not, you were here an hour early (which is not an issue, I guess you could make extra time for the Lord)! November is here, which means the weather will soon start shifting towards cooler temperatures. May we enjoy this time of seasonal transition and time change as we do regularly.

It's a pleasure to write my first bulletin article here for Monticello! I want to use this opportunity to extend a giant THANK YOU to everyone who came out and helped me move into my new apartment. Your time, energy, effort, and muscles were greatly appreciated. Both times we met took very little time. I'm grateful for your warm welcomes and your willingness to support me. I'm looking forward to this new work and pray that God would work redemptively within me, the campus ministry, and us as a body of believers that meet together. May God's Kingdom continue to be built up in all of us, and in those we come into contact regularly.

I was impressed with our Fall Festival event a couple weekends ago. Many showed up and showed out in a variety of ways. There were so many games I wasn't sure we could fit another car...You could tell that the adults enjoyed it as much as the kids. It was really encouraging to greet our visitors of the community too. Outreach and evangelism doesn't have to be an awkward thing—it can actually be fun and worthwhile, but it all depends on how you go about it! This is a sort of tightrope we have to maintain in this world. May we not be so concerned about ourselves that we neglect to reach out to those in the community, and may we not be so focused on the community that we compromise our values and principles as disciples of Jesus.

Sure, there's more that could be discussed in this article. But for now, let's set aside everything we hold dear and turn our focus upon our Lord in all of His glory and splendor. Let's honor Him for who He really is, and praise Him for what He's done for us through His only son, Jesus. Let's tune our hearts to sing His praise! May you be blessed in lifting up His name today.
