The Bible in the Common Tongue

---

- # Council of Toulouse in AD 1229
    - 45 canons passed for the extinction of heresy and the reestablishment of peace
    - 14th canon forbade the Scriptures to the laity, or the translation of any portion of them into the common tongue.

The Bible in the Common Tongue

---

“We also forbid the laity to possess any of the books of the Old or New Testaments, except, perhaps, the Psalter or Breviary for the Divine Offices, or the Hours of the Blessed Virgin, which some, out of devotion, wish to have; but having any of these books translated into the vulgar tongue, we strictly forbid.”

- # How can we be confident that our English versions are trust-worthy, given that:
  - so much time has passed,
  - so many things have happened,
  - and given the difficulty of translating text from one language to another?

A Good Question!

English Versions of the Bible

---

- #Some versions should NOT be trusted as careful translations
    - The New World Translation
      - Because it was translated by the Jehovah's Witness organization and thus contains its bias
      - Example of John 1:1

English Versions of the Bible

---

- #Some versions should NOT be trusted as careful translations
    - The Living Bible: Paraphrased
      - Because it was produced by one man (Kenneth Taylor)
      - It is a rephrasing of the Bible “thought for thought”

English Versions of the Bible

---

- #Some versions should NOT be trusted as careful translations
    - The Living Bible: Paraphrased
      - It is filled with faults and weaknesses reflecting his own biases
      - Examples: Eph. 2:3b; 1 Pet. 3:21a

- # Other versions should be used with careful judgment because of the purpose in their translations.
    - Several English versions were produced by committees of scholars, but their intent was a “meaning-for-meaning” translation rather than a “word-for-word” translation.

# The most trustworthy modern English versions are those:

- Translated by a large committee of scholars from various backgrounds
  - Produced with the intent of giving the world an accurate “word-for-word” translation of the best available Greek and Hebrew texts

English Versions of the Bible

# Examples of these are the:

- King James Version (KJV)
  - New King James Version (NKJV)
  - American Standard Version (ASV)
  - New American Standard Version (NASV)
  - English Standard Version (ESV)

# Acts 8:37

- KJV - “And Philip said, If thou believest with all thine heart, thou mayest. And he answered and said, I believe Jesus Christ is the Son of God.”
- NKJV - “*Then Philip said, ‘If you believe with all your heart, you may.’ And he answered and said, ‘I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God.’”

*8:37 NU, M omit v. 37, It is found in Western texts, including the Latin tradition.

# Acts 8:37

- ASV – Omits this verse in the text and puts it in a footnote as follows:
    - Some ancient authorities insert, wholly or in part, ver. 37 “And Philip said, If thou believest with all thine heart, thou mayest. And he answered and said, I believe Jesus Christ is the Son of God.”

# Mark 16:9-20

- NKJV – “9 Now when He rose ... 20 And they went out, and preached everywhere, the Lord working with them and confirming the word through the accompanying signs. *Amen.”

*16:20 Vv 9-20 are bracketed in NU as not original.

They are lacking in Codex Sinaiticus and Codex Vaticanus, although nearly all other mss. of Mark contain them.
