

The background image shows the interior of an ancient stone building, likely a tomb or a small chapel. It features several large, cylindrical stone columns supporting a wooden beam ceiling. In the center, there is a small wooden table with some items on it. The walls are made of rough-hewn stone, and there are some jars or containers on the floor. The lighting is warm and comes from the right side, creating a dramatic effect.

and Ascension

Lesson 13

Would we have been just as shocked as the disciples at Jesus' resurrection and appearances, or would we have been expecting him?

Over how long of a period did the appearances of Jesus take place?

Why is the resurrection of Jesus so important?
