

The background image shows the interior of a stone building, possibly a tomb or a small chapel. It features several large, cylindrical stone columns supporting a wooden beam ceiling. The walls are made of rough-hewn stone blocks. In the center, there is a small wooden table with some items on it. To the right, there are stone steps leading up to a higher level. The lighting is warm and comes from the right side, casting shadows on the floor and walls.

The Final Day: Gethsemane

Lesson 8

What about Jesus' last night in Gethsemane stands out the most to you?

Why did Judas need to lead the officials to Jesus?

Why did he need to identify Jesus to them?

Why was this being done at night?
