Introduction: What causes a man to change?

- A. We are strongly prone to self-deception and self-justification!
  - 1. Our desire for predictability and ease can close our minds to reality!
  - 2. Because change often involves pain, we put it off. In this we can destroy the conscience so that the day of change never comes!
  - 3. How many here believe that Jesus was raised from the dead? Are we fervently serving the Lord? If not, why not? (2 Pt 3:4-5; Lk 12:18-20)
- B. Please reach out in your mind and visit the cross of Christ anew.
  - 1. What causes a man to change? The suffering and death of Christ can be a catalyst in opening hearts.
  - 2. If we could only see ourselves as God does, then we would empty ourselves and let God fill our lives and build us up! (Mt 5:3; Lk 9:23-24)

I. What caused the thief on the Cross to change?

- A. How does a man respond to intense suffering? Often pain can show us what we are really made of!
  - 1. Throughout the various trials, mocking's, beatings and even the cross itself, Jesus is thinking about how to help others.
  - 2. Even as He is being led to the cross, He warns others about the future destruction of Jerusalem. (Lk 23:27-31)
- B. Both thieves started the day as angry scoffers and blasphemers. Their execution was rushed so they could serve as "props" to make Jesus appear guilty.
  - 1. This was actually foretold in prophecy! (Isa 53:9)
  - 2. Jesus never once struck back. In this He showed utter confidence in God. (Isa 53:7; 1 Pt 2:21-23)
  - 3. Did the thieves curse and swear? They understood what Jesus was suffering and could see a strength that soke to their hearts. (Mt 27:44)
- C. The intense hatred of the religious leaders was seen. (Lk 23:35; Mt 27:39-44)
  - 1. If someone with no background of these events had walked upon this scene what would he think?
  - 2. What were the leaders saying? These were "Taunts that offer a tribute."
- D. We see the crucified Jesus.
  - 1. How did Jesus respond to these injustices? "Father, forgive them". (Lk 23:34)
  - 2. The greatest influence one can have is to do right while suffering.

II. Consider the mind of Christ at the cross in prophecy (Psalms 22)

- A. Those who claim to be atheist and agnostics rarely have taken time to see the evidence found in the scriptures. Consider the fulfilled prophecy of Jesus in Psalms 22.
- B. Jesus combines what He currently sees with His eyes with that which He remembers in the scriptures and in His life!

1. He looks out at the scene of the cross and appears forsaken. (Psa 22:1-2)
  - a. Jesus was crying out to God in His pain. (Mt 27:46)
  - b. He cried out both in light and darkness. (Mt 27:45)
2. Jesus remembers that God is always true! (Psa 22:3-5)
  - a. He remembers that God is "enthroned in the praises of Israel."
  - b. From the scriptures He knew of God's sure promises! (Ps 34:3-5)
3. He looks out and saw His broken body and scoffers despising Him. (Psa 22:6-8)
  - a. His bloody and bruised body had the appearance of a worm.
  - b. The very words of His enemies were prophesied! (Mt 27:41-44)
4. Jesus remembers how God had always loved Him. (Psa 22:9-11)
  - a. God provided for Him from conception! He does so to us as well.
  - b. God will always help when there is "none to help."
5. Jesus saw that His body was wounded and dying. (Psa 22:12-18)
  - a. Jesus described in detail the physical effects of a death upon the cross.
  - b. Psalms describes even how they gambled for His clothing. (Mt 27:35-36)
  - c. This was written 1000 years before the event and 700 years before crucifixion was invented in history! THINK!
6. Jesus knew from scripture that God would deliver Him. (Psa 22:19-21)
  - a. In spite of everything He could see, He knew that God would respond!
  - b. This is how we also must prepare for future suffering!
7. "You have answered Me." (Psa 22:21)

III. The power of the example of the cross

- A. One thief responded to this example. (Lk 23:42)
  1. He saw the greatness of his own sin and makes no excuses. It is sad to see the rationalization of those who claim to serve God.
  2. Did the other thief change too? (Lk 23:39)
  3. Only one thief yielded his will to stand for the Lord! (Lk 23:40-41)
  4. It is not difficult to know when one's heart has turned to the Lord! (Heb 1:9)
- B. A Roman centurion also responded to this example. (Mt 27:50-54)
  1. He needed more instruction and would later have that opportunity.
  2. Why did this centurion see that the Jewish leaders could not?
- C. Are we moved by the cross of Christ?
  1. This message must prick our hearts and create a great change. (Acts 2:37-38)
  2. We must constantly remember who we are. (Gal 6:14)
  3. Some begin the battle and then become enemies of the cross. (Phil 3:18)
  4. We become enemies when we let our appetites rule our lives.
  5. We become enemies when we fear men more than we do God. (Gal 6:12; 1:10)

Conclusion: How do we remember this great event?
