

1 Corinthians 1

1. To whom is this letter addressed?
2. Which chapter in the Book of Acts records Paul's work in the city of Corinth?
3. For what does Paul thank God? (vv. 4-8).
4. What problem in the church had been reported to Paul? (v. 11-12)?
5. T F According to verses 14 and 17, baptism is not very important.
6. Was the "message of the cross" viewed in the same way by everyone?
7. What has God done to the wisdom of the world?
8. T F According to vv. 22-23, Paul preached what people wanted to hear.
9. The foolishness of God is _____ than men, and the weakness of God is _____ than men.
10. What kinds of people are normally found in the kingdom of God?
11. What did Christ become for us? (v. 30).
12. Should we ever glory in ourselves?

1 Corinthians 2

1. What did Paul not feature in his preaching?
2. What did he feature in his preaching?
3. What attitudes did Paul display while among the Corinthians? (v. 3).
4. According to v. 5, why did Paul preach in the manner he did?
5. What statement is made about the wisdom of this age and the rulers of this age? (v. 6).
6. Does the wisdom of God remain a “mystery”?
7. No one knows the things of God except whom?
8. In what manner did God reveal His will to Paul and to the other apostles?
9. What kind of man does not receive the things of the Spirit of God?
10. What kind of man does receive the things of the Spirit of God?

1 Corinthians 3

1. Why did Paul have to feed these brethren with milk?
2. What evidence did Paul have that these brethren were still carnal?
3. According to v. 5, who is Paul, and who is Apollos?
4. How does Paul describe the work he did in Corinth? How does he describe the work Apollos did?
5. Who is it that gives the increase?
6. How are the brethren in Corinth described in v. 9?
7. What is the only spiritual foundation that can be laid?
8. Paul goes on to talk about “work” which is built on this foundation (vv. 12-15). What “work” is he talking about?
9. How is the church described in v. 16?
10. What will happen to someone who defiles the temple of God?
11. What must happen before someone can truly become wise?
12. All are _____. And you are _____, and Christ is _____.

1 Corinthians 4

1. How should teachers like Paul and Apollos be regarded? (v. 1).
2. What is the main requirement of a steward?
3. Is man fully equipped to judge the faithfulness of another man?
4. According to v. 6, what did Paul want these brethren to learn?
5. What three questions are directed to these brethren in v. 7? What point is he trying to make by asking these questions?
6. What contrast does Paul present between the apostles and the Corinthians? (vv. 8-13).
7. According to v. 14, what motive did Paul have in writing these things?
8. What relationship was there between Paul and these brethren?
9. For what reason was Timothy being sent?
10. Did Paul have plans to return to Corinth?
11. What statement is made about the kingdom of God?
12. What would determine whether Paul came with a “rod,” or “in love and a spirit of gentleness”?

1 Corinthians 5

1. What had been reported to be among the brethren in Corinth?
2. Had the right attitude been taken toward this sin?
3. What were they do when they were “gathered together”?
4. What is the danger of a “little leaven”?
5. Explain how Christ is “our Passover.”
6. According to v. 8, how should we “keep the feast”?
7. T F We should not “keep company” with the “people of this world.”
8. With whom should we not “keep company”?
9. According to v. 12, whom should we judge?
10. What final admonition is given in v. 13?

1 Corinthians 6

1. Should a brother “go to law” against another brother? Why or why not?
2. Who should judge matters between brethren?
3. According to vv. 2-3, whom will saints judge?
4. Is there ever a time that we should just “accept wrong”?
5. According to this passage, who will not inherit the kingdom of God?
6. But you were _____, but you were _____, but you were _____ in the name of the Lord Jesus and by the Spirit of God.
7. T F According to v. 12, nothing would be a sin to Paul.
8. The body is not for _____ but for _____.
9. Since our bodies are “members of Christ,” what happens if we join ourselves to a harlot? (v. 15).
10. What distinguishes sexual immorality from other sins? (v. 18).
11. How is our body described in v. 19?
12. Realizing that we were bought at a price, how should we conduct ourselves?

1 Corinthians 7

1. T F Paul thought marriage was a bad idea (vv. 1, 7-8).
2. Why, according to v. 2, should each man have his own wife, and each woman have her own husband?
3. According to vv. 3-4, what should husband and wife make sure they render to each other?
4. Only under what conditions could husband and wife deprive one another?
5. It is better to marry than to do what?
6. What three commandments are given in vv. 10-11?
7. Notice carefully the phrase at the beginning of v. 11: “But even if she does depart...” Does this mean it is all right to depart (divorce) as long as we don’t marry again?
8. What about the case of a believer (Christian) married to an unbeliever? Should the believer divorce this unbelieving companion?
9. What if the unbeliever departs? How should the believer respond?
10. T F According to v. 15, if the unbeliever departs, the believer is free to get married again.
11. What admonition is given in verse 17, and then repeated in verses 20 and 24?
12. According to v. 19, what is nothing, and what really matters?
13. What if someone was “called while a slave”? What should they do, or not do?
14. According to v. 26, why is it “good for a man to remain as he is”?
15. What kind of trouble could the married expect, according to v. 28?
16. According to v. 29, how much “time” did they have?
17. What statement is made about the “form (or fashion) of this world”?
18. In vv. 32-34, what contrast is drawn between the married and the unmarried?
19. At this particular time, would it be better for a father to give his daughter in marriage, or not give her in marriage?
20. How long is a wife bound to her husband?
21. What restriction is given on the remarriage of a widow?
22. What statement is made about marriage in Hebrews 13:4?

1 Corinthians 8

1. According to v. 1. what can knowledge do to a person?
2. So what must accompany knowledge?
3. What is an idol, according to v. 4?
4. How many “Gods” are there?
5. What about someone who still had “consciousness of the idol”? What would happen to their conscience if they ate what had been offered to idols?
6. Was eating food offered to idols wrong within itself?
7. Could this eating of food offered to idols become a sin? Explain.
8. According to v. 11, how valuable is my brother in Christ?
9. When we sin against our brother, we also sin against whom?
10. What had Paul resolved to do, if eating certain foods caused his brother to stumble?

1 Corinthians 9

1. What evidence does Paul offer to show that he was truly an apostle?
2. Were any of the apostles married?
3. In verses 4-14, Paul is showing that those who preach have the right to be supported financially. List the different arguments he makes to prove his point.
4. Why did Paul often waive his right to financial support?
5. What effort did Paul make in trying to win or gain more converts? (vv. 19-22).
6. To what is the life of a Christian compared? (v. 24).
7. According to v. 25, if we are competing for a prize, we must exercise what?
8. For what kind of crown are we striving?
9. According to v. 26, Paul did not run with what?
10. Why did Paul “discipline” or “buffet” his body?

1 Corinthians 10

1. According to vv. 1-4, what did the Israelites have in common?
2. What was God's attitude toward most of the Israelites?
3. List some things the Israelites did that we should not do.
4. Do these Old Testament examples have any value for us today?
5. Finish this statement, "Let him who thinks he stands..."
6. According to v. 13, what assurances are we given concerning temptation?
7. From what are these brethren told to flee?
8. What event does Paul refer to in vv. 16-17?
9. With whom were they not to have fellowship?
10. Under what circumstances would it be wrong to eat meat offered to idols?
11. "Whatever you do, do all to the _____.".
12. Whom should I try to please in all things?

1 Corinthians 11

1. For what are these brethren praised?
2. The head of every man is _____, the head of woman is _____, and the head of Christ is _____.
3. According to v. 4, in what way could a man dishonor his head?
4. According to v. 5, how could a woman dishonor her head?
5. A woman praying or prophesying with her head uncovered is compared to what other shameful situation?
6. For what reason should a man not cover his head?
7. What is meant by the statement in v. 8, “For man is not from woman, but woman from man”?
8. In what sense was the woman created “for the man”?
9. For what reason should a woman “have a symbol of authority on her head”?
10. What were they to judge among themselves?
11. What did nature teach about long hair on a man?
12. What did nature teach about long hair on a woman?
13. In v. 15 the following statement is made, “for her hair is given to her for a covering.” Is that the only kind of covering discussed in this passage?
14. Finish this statement, “But if anyone seems to be contentious...”
15. Earlier in the chapter (11:2), Paul praised the brethren. But on a different matter, Paul is unable to praise the brethren (11:17, 22). What was the problem? (vv. 17-22).
16. What two “suppers” are discussed in this passage?
17. Where should my “own supper” be eaten? (vv. 22, 34).
18. According to v. 23, on what occasion did Jesus first institute the Lord’s Supper?
19. In the words of Jesus, why do we eat the bread and drink the cup?
20. What do we proclaim when we eat the bread and drink the cup?
21. What are the consequences to eating the Lord’s Supper in an unworthy manner? (vv. 27, 29-30).
22. Explain the phrase, “not discerning the Lord’s body” (v. 29).
23. For what purpose are we chastened by the Lord? (v. 32).
24. What commandment is given in v. 33?

1 Corinthians 12

1. According to v. 1, what subject does Paul now begin to discuss?
2. What was one way of determining if someone was speaking by the Spirit of God?
3. According to 12:7, for what reason were the different gifts given?
4. List the different spiritual gifts.
5. “We were all baptized into _____.”
6. Which members of the body are not necessary?
7. How should members of the body react when another member suffers? How should they react when another member is honored?
8. What has God appointed in the church, according to v. 28?
9. What are these brethren told to earnestly desire?
10. What does Paul intend to show them?

1 Corinthians 13

1. What phrase is repeated in each of the first three verses? “But have not _____...”
2. How does love behave, according to vv. 4-7?
3. What would become of tongues, prophecies, knowledge, and other spiritual gifts?
4. Verse 10 speaks of something “which is perfect,” and something “which is in part.” Explain what is meant by each one of these phrases.
5. What did Paul do as a child? What did he do when he became a man?
6. How does Paul say we now see? How will we see then?
7. In reference to faith, hope, and love, which one is the greatest? Why would that be the case?
8. Back in 12:31 Paul mentioned a “more excellent way.” What is it?

1 Corinthians 14

1. What spiritual gift should they especially desire?
2. In vv. 2-4, what is said about one who speaks in a tongue? What is said about one who prophesies?
3. Why is one who prophesies greater than one who speaks with tongues?
4. What value would tongue speaking have if no one knew the meaning of the language?
5. Why should someone want to excel in the area of spiritual gifts, according to v. 12?
6. According to v. 19, what would Paul rather speak “in the church”?
7. In what way should we be like children? In what way should we not be like children?
8. According to v. 23, for whom are tongues a sign?
9. What regulations are given for tongue speaking in the assembly? (v. 27).
10. What if no interpreter was present? What should a tongue speaker do in that case?
11. What regulations are given for prophesying in the assembly?
12. What restrictions are placed on women in the assembly?
13. Finish this statement “If anyone thinks himself to be a prophet or spiritual, let him...”
14. According to v. 40, in what manner should all things be done?

1 Corinthians 15

1. By what are we saved, according to vv. 1-2?
2. According to vv. 3-4, what had Paul delivered to these brethren?
3. How can we be sure Jesus was raised from the dead? Were there any eyewitnesses?
4. According to v. 12, what were some among them saying?
5. Read carefully vv. 13-19. If there is no resurrection of the dead, what would be some of the consequences?
6. Explain how Christ “has become the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep.”
7. Christ must reign until when? What will He then do?
8. If the dead do not rise, what attitude could we take toward life? (v. 32).
9. About what should we not be deceived?
10. According to v. 35, what questions might someone ask about the resurrection?
11. How is the sowing of seed tied into the teaching about the resurrection of the dead?
12. Although many details are left out, what will the resurrection body be like, according to vv. 42-49?
13. According to v. 51, “we shall all be changed.” What kind of change is meant, and why is this change necessary?
14. According to v. 57, what are we given through Jesus Christ?
15. Knowing that our labor is not in vain, how should we conduct ourselves?

1 Corinthians 16

1. What order was given to the church at Corinth that had also been given to the churches of Galatia?
2. When did Paul plan to come to Corinth?
3. According to v. 7, upon what were his plans conditioned?
4. Why did Paul plan to “tarry in Ephesus?”
5. What good thing is said about Timothy in this chapter?
6. What instructions were they given concerning Timothy?
7. When did Apollos plan to come to Corinth?
8. List the five commandments given in vv. 13-14.
9. To what had the household of Stephanas devoted themselves?
10. What did Stephanas, Fortunatus, and Achaicus do for Paul?
11. Who sent hearty greetings to the church in Corinth?
12. What is said about someone who does not love the Lord? How do we know if someone loves the Lord?