

The Prattmont Church of Christ is just what the name suggests, a church that belongs to Christ. We are not a denomination; we are simply a group of Christians trying very hard to practice the teachings of our Head, Jesus Christ. The New Testament offers a complete pattern for what each local church should be like—its organization, its worship, its work, etc. We are committed to following that pattern. We cordially invite you to attend our services. We would also welcome any comments or questions about this bulletin.

Honor God

by Bryan Gibson

“Honor your father and mother” (Ephesians 6:2), yes, but first and foremost, honor God. Honor God...

By speaking to others about Him (Acts 4:18-20; Jeremiah 20:9).

By speaking only what He has spoken (John 7:14, 16-18; 8:28; 12:49-50; 14:24; 17:8).

By obeying what He has spoken (Matthew 28:20; Acts 3:22).

By not defiling the temple in which He dwells (1 Corinthians 6:13-20; 1 Thessalonians 4:1-8).

By honoring others before yourself (Romans 12:10; Philippians 2:3).

By honoring those He put in authority (Ephesians 6:2; Romans 13:1-7; 1 Peter 2:13-17).

By giving special honor to those who honor Him (Psalms 15:4; Philippians 2:29-30; 1 Thessalonians 5:12-13; 1 Timothy 5:17).

By avoiding things that even seem dishonorable (2 Corinthians 8:16-21).

By confessing your sin—by saying He is right and you are wrong (Joshua 7:19).

“A son honors his father, and a servant his master. If then I am the Father, where is My honor?” (Malachi 1:6).

What Does It Profit?

by Bryan Gibson

“What profit is it to a man if he gains the whole world, and loses his own soul?” (Matthew 16:26, NKJ).

Or, to ask it another way: “What profit is it to us if we are attractive, if we know all the right people, if we have a million followers on Instagram, if we stay in peak physical condition, if we get a great education, land a great job, make a lot of money, excel in some sport or other activity, and lose our souls?”

And yet...these are the kind of things we tend to praise (or boast about) the most. I'm glad we have the LORD to set us straight:

“Let not a wise man boast of his wisdom, and let not the mighty man boast of his might, let not a rich man boast of his riches; but let him who boasts boast of this, that he understands and knows Me, that I am the LORD who exercises lovingkindness, justice and righteousness on earth; for I delight in these things” (Jeremiah 9:23-24, NAS).

And if we should need to narrow it down to ONE thing, this is it:

“Far be it from me to boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world” (Galatians 6:14, ESV).
