

HE PREACHED RIGHT AT ME

James Hahn

I have found this statement made many times by individuals who have just heard a sermon presented which exposed some wrong in their lives. Did you ever wonder why anyone would feel that the preacher had “preached right at” him? Suppose the preacher has just preached against lying. Who in the audience will feel that he has preached right at him? It would only be one who is guilty of lying. The same would hold true on any other subject.

What we need to do is examine the things taught in the light of God’s word. If we find them to be true, we should accept them. If they expose some wrong in our life, we need to change and thank God that there is someone concerned enough about our soul to teach us what we need to hear.

HEBREWS 4:12

“For the word of God is living and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the division of soul and spirit, and of joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart.”
