

WHO IS A MINISTER?

Introduction

- 1) When someone asks for a “minister,” who do we usually think of?
  - a) The preacher is the primary person that comes to mind for most people
- 2) The Bible use of the word “minister” encompasses much more than this
  - a) In fact, we will learn that all of us are to be “ministers” in the Lord’s service

I) The Preacher as a Minister

- A) Instructing brethren in truth (1 Tim. 4:6)
- B) Fulfilling a “ministry” (2 Tim. 4:5)

II) Other Examples of God’s “Ministers”

- A) Government (Rom. 13:4, 6)
- B) Angels (Heb. 1:14)

III) Definition of “minister”

- A) Gk. diakoneo – to be a servant, attendant, to serve, wait upon, minister (cf. 2 Tim. 1:18)
  - 1) “It is service rendered to benefit others the rendering of which one has the capability of doing” (Clinton Hamilton, Romans, p. 691)
- B) Gk. leitourgeo – to do service...has to do with the fulfillment of an office, the discharge of a function (cf. Heb. 10:11)
- C) Both words are used in Romans 15:25-27 and translated “to minister”; also Hebrews 1:14
  - 1) Diakoneo is the word used most often in the New Testament, and is transliterated as “deacon” for those who serve in a special capacity of service in the local church (1 Tim. 3:8-13; Phil. 1:1)

IV) Jesus – The Perfect Minister

- A) Service has always been a part of God’s character (Matt. 20:25-28)
- B) Our Lord is the “God of the towel” (Jn. 13:12-17)
- C) To serve our Master, we must be ready and willing to serve others (Matt. 25:34-45)
  - 1) The one who ministers to another in sending a card or providing transportation is just as needed as the one who ministers in preaching the word

V) All Christians are Ministers

- A) Some have unique talents/means to serve others well (Rom. 12:4-8; Rom. 16:1)
- B) Our benevolent duty to needy saints (Rom. 15:27; 2 Cor. 8:4; 9:1, 13)
- C) Responsibility to serve others with the abilities we have (1 Pet. 4:7-11)
  - 1) By teaching and ministering we glorify God through Jesus Christ who equips us

VI) The Work of Ministering

- A) Ephesians 4:12 – all saints are to be equipped for the work of ministry
  - 1) All should minister to the needs of others (teach, edify, exhort, rebuke, comfort, aid, etc.)
- B) The term “minister” has been wrongly restricted to just certain individuals, when it is a broad term encompassing everyone who is a disciple of Christ

Conclusion

Now, if we were to ask for a “minister,” we can look to ourselves, for each of us is a servant of Jesus to minister to one another. The only thing left is...to the work!! Will you submit to and obey the Lord Jesus today for the salvation of your soul?
