

Observing a Paragraph

TODAY'S PASSAGE:

Nehemiah 1:4-11

TIME COMMITMENT:

30 minutes

The paragraph is the basic unit of study – not the verse, not the chapter. Certainly a paragraph may be as short as one verse or as long as an entire chapter. In any case, the paragraph completes an entire thought. It is a group of related sentences and statements that deal with one main topic or idea. Begin by using the questions on “Observing a Passage of Scripture.” You should find significance in the author, the context, and the people mentioned. Practice your observations skills and write down your notations below:
