

Sinful Past Part 1

Please read Jeremiah 1-5.

The children of Israel had a problem keeping God's law. R.C. Sproul once wrote, "the law of God proceeds from God's being and reflects His character." In your estimation, what does God's law reveal about his character?

Most people don't sin because they feel like taking revenge on God. The sinful choices we make are often the result of something which seems reasonable to us. Read Jeremiah 2-3:5. List below five great sins of Israel.

In what circumstances could these sins seem reasonable? What is the deception at play?

What similar deceptions do we play today? What values are in conflict so some of these sins seem reasonable?
