

2 Timothy

Lesson 2 — 2 Timothy 2.1-26

After reminding Timothy of his love for him and after encouraging Timothy not to be ashamed of his present circumstance, Paul transitions into a heartfelt section of 2 Timothy. In 2 Timothy 2, Paul speaks to Timothy as a son, reminding him of what is most important and encouraging him to endure to the end.

- 1) What was Timothy to do with the Gospel teachings he had received?
A) _____
- 2) What one fact did Paul seek to impress upon Timothy's memory?
A) _____
- 3) Why did Paul endure all of the hardship that came his way?
A) _____
- 4) What can Jesus not do?
A) _____
- 5) Paul warns against "empty and worldly chatter" (v16); contextually, what would qualify as "empty and worldly chatter"?
A) _____
- 6) Even though our circumstances might make it hard to remember, what does God know?
A) _____
- 7) What qualities do I need to possess in order to be an effective teacher?
A) _____

THOUGHT QUESTIONS:

- 1) I thought God wanted everyone to repent and be saved — so why does Paul say "perhaps" in 2.25?
- 2) Hymenaeus and Philetus taught that the resurrection had already occurred — is that really a problem? Why or why not?